History and Mission of the New Mexico Pastel Society

The New Mexico Pastel Society was founded with the goal of uniting pastel artists and enthusiasts across the state to elevate the medium's presence within the arts community. Since its inception, the society has emphasized the promotion of pastel art through various programs and initiatives designed to support both emerging and established artists. Its mission centers on advancing the understanding and appreciation of pastel techniques while fostering a supportive environment for artistic growth. The society recognizes the unique qualities of pastel as a medium, including its vibrancy, versatility, and immediacy, and seeks to showcase these attributes through its activities.

Founding Principles

The society was created to provide a dedicated organization that promotes pastel painting, encourages high standards of artistry, and facilitates communication among pastel artists. It also aims to educate the public and art community about the value and versatility of pastel art through exhibitions and educational programs.

Core Objectives

The New Mexico Pastel Society focuses on several core objectives including:

- Encouraging artistic excellence and innovation in pastel art.
- Providing educational opportunities for artists at all skill levels.
- Organizing exhibitions to promote visibility for pastel works.
- Building a network of artists, collectors, and art institutions.
- Preserving the tradition and expanding the future of pastel art.

Membership and Community Engagement

Membership in the New Mexico Pastel Society is open to artists, collectors, educators, and pastel enthusiasts who are interested in furthering the medium's reach. The society offers a structured membership program designed to foster a welcoming and inclusive community. Members benefit from access to resources, events, and opportunities that enhance their artistic practice and professional growth.

Membership Levels

The society provides various membership categories to accommodate different levels of engagement:

- Artist Members: For professional and amateur artists who work primarily with pastels.
- Associate Members: For art lovers and supporters who may not be artists themselves.
- Student Members: For individuals currently enrolled in art education programs.
- Emeritus Members: For long-standing contributors and retired artists.

Community Outreach

Beyond serving its members, the New Mexico Pastel Society actively engages with the broader community through outreach programs. These include public demonstrations, school visits, and collaborative projects with cultural institutions aimed at increasing awareness and appreciation of pastel art among diverse audiences.

Events and Workshops

The New Mexico Pastel Society hosts a wide range of events and workshops designed to enrich the skills and knowledge of its members. These programs cater to various levels of expertise and often feature nationally recognized pastel artists and instructors. Workshops provide hands-on experience and instruction in techniques such as layering, blending, and color theory specific to pastel media.

Annual Workshops

Each year, the society organizes intensive workshops that focus on:

- Advanced pastel techniques and innovations.
- Exploration of different pastel materials and surfaces.
- Composition and design principles for pastel painting.
- Contemporary trends and styles within the pastel art community.
