Purpose of the Temple Recommend Interview

The temple recommend interview serves as a spiritual check-in for members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Its primary purpose is to ensure that individuals are living in harmony with church teachings and are prepared to enter the temple, a sacred place dedicated to worship and important ordinances. The interview is typically conducted by a bishop or branch president, and sometimes by a stake president for certain temple ordinances. It helps leaders determine if the member is spiritually and morally prepared to participate in temple ceremonies.

Beyond assessing worthiness, the interview reinforces a member's commitment to gospel principles, including faith, repentance, and obedience. It also provides an opportunity for church leaders to support and encourage members in their spiritual growth. The questions asked are designed to be straightforward and reflective, focusing on personal conduct, beliefs, and adherence to commandments.

Common Temple Recommend Interview Questions 2022

In 2022, temple recommend interview questions continue to focus on core doctrines, personal worthiness, and adherence to church standards. These questions are consistent with those asked in previous years but may include updated wording to align with current church guidelines. The questions generally cover areas such as faith in Jesus Christ, adherence to the commandments, honesty, law of chastity, and observance of the Word of Wisdom.

Typical Questions Asked During the Interview

Interviewers ask a series of standardized questions to evaluate a member's readiness for temple attendance. These questions often include:

- Do you have faith in and a testimony of God the Eternal Father, His Son Jesus Christ, and the Holy Ghost?
- Do you have a testimony of the Atonement of Jesus Christ and of His role as your Savior and Redeemer?
- Do you support and sustain the President of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints as the prophet, seer, and revelator?
- Do you strive to keep the commandments of God, including the Word of Wisdom and the law of chastity?
- Are you honest in your dealings with your fellowmen?
- Do you pay a full and honest tithe?
- Do you keep the Sabbath day holy?
- Are you currently involved in any serious sins or transgressions that need to be repented of?
- Do you sustain the leaders of the church and uphold their teachings?

These questions help interviewers assess both spiritual and behavioral readiness for temple worthiness.

Additional Questions on Personal and Family Conduct
